State Land Commissioner Vanessa Hickman Appoints Real Estate Division Director Jim Adams Deputy State Land Commissioner

Mr. Adams' career includes research, real estate, business and government. A resident of Arizona since 1956, he received his Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Texas A&M University in 1971. Before joining the Arizona State Land Department, Jim's career path includes work as an economist, as a manager for major property development companies, and as the owner of a company specializing in real estate brokerage, consulting and investment. After joining the Land Department in 1995, he served as manager of the Commercial Section and he was later appointed Director of Real Estate overseeing planning, engineering, land sales and leasing. Jim will now serve as Deputy State Land Commissioner, helping manage all responsibilities of the State Land Department.
